The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation RACE FOR THE CURE

June 2001

Meredith student and family

Breast cancer is the most common cancer among women, other than skin cancer. It is the second leading cause of cancer death for all women and the leading overall cause of death in women between the ages of 40 and 55. In the United States, 1 out of 8 women will develop breast cancer in her lifetime. This year, breast cancer will be newly diagnosed every three minutes, and a woman will die from breast cancer every 13 minutes. This year in the United States more than 200,000 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer, and nearly 40,000 women will die from breast cancer.

There are more than two million breast cancer survivors in America today.

Freshmen Frolic is a time for making new friends and bonding with your hall.

OCTOBER 18

In mid-October, freshmen take the spotlight as they frolic away the day. Games, bed races, and fun fill the afternoon while First Year Experience students sing and dance for their fellow peers. This STUDENT ACTIVITIES SPONSORED event provides a chance for first year students to build class unity and spirit.

These Meredith angels pose for the camera while others take on the difficult task of jumping rope blindfolded.

Student Advising groups and Resident Halls compete in various events such as a Bed Race and Human Gift Wrap.

FRESHMEN FROLIC

Whether you are participating in the bed race or just cheering on the sidelines, Meredith girls know how to show their spirit.

The importance of the Meredith Ring cannot be underestimated. Whether on campus or off, the ring symbolizes the unity of the women that attend Meredith College. Every October, a new class of Meredith women receive their rings at the Junior Ring Dinner after a week of celebration and anticipation.

OCTOBER 26

Close friends come together to share this great moment.

President Hartford, Dr. Jackson, and Dr. Davis enjoy sharing this moment with the Juniors.

FAMILY DAY

After residents have time to settle into their rooms, families are invited to visit with their daughters at the beginning of the semester. A day of tours, lunch, and show and tell provides families and students a chance to connect.

Spending time with your family is well valued especially when you live miles apart.

Cornhuskin'

UNDER THE HARVEST MOON

In the fall, each class competitively presents a skit word parade, a tall tale, songs and hog-calling skit, all of which are related thematically. The four classes are judged on these performances as well as on apple-bobbing, cornshucking, can art, class attendance and sweatshirt design. WINGS students and faculty also participate in the night of fun. The Meredith Pride Spirit Stick is also given by MRA to the most spirited class. All of these activities comprise the official Cornhuskin' festivities. Additional activities scheduled throughout the week include Big Sis/Lil Sis, Bonfire, Scavenger Hunt, Presidents Raid, hall raids, and Cornhuskin' parade. Cornhuskin' is sponsored by the Meredith Recreations Association and usually occurs during the first week in November.

WHITE IRIS BALL NOVEMBER 9

Friends never let the night go by without capturing their memories at the Ball.

Striking it rich, these couples know how to play it Las Vegas style.

The Meredith Entertainment Association sponsors a semi-formal dance each fall for all students. The White Iris Ball is held at the Raleigh Convention and Conference Center or another off-campus site.

Dressed in style, everyone is ready to bust a move.

“Feminine energy is reflective, receptive, relational, and multi-dimensional. The process is spiral, seeming to diverge, wander, and reconverge at any given stage. Feminine energy abhors being pinned down, limited, or prematurely birthed. Feminine energy is full of paradox - incubating and seemingly inert one moment, it can move through us like lightning the next. It is the nature of feminine energy to entertain many possibilities before choosing one. Nature loves all her creations equally.”

— Dr. Paula Reeves, Women's Intuition.

Meredith Sisters take time to bond with each other while they enjoy ice cream sundays.

AUGUST 28

Every fall, the newest Lil Sisters are invited to join their new Big Sisters at an ice cream social held in Belk Dining Hall. During the fall of 2001, the classes of 2003 and 2005 were brought together to enjoy a performance by the Oddballs. They sang some songs and shared some ice cream, smiles, and time with their sisters. Chance made these women sisters, and ice cream made their smiles.

THE VAGINA MONOLOGUES

The Vagina Monologues
February 14, 15 and 16, 2002
Meredith College

The V-Day College Campaign invites colleges and universities around the world to mount benefit productions of "The Vagina Monologues" on their campuses around V-Day (Valentine's Day) to raise money and awareness to stop violence against women. The proceeds from these events are donated to local organizations in the schools' communities that are working to stop sexual violence. One of the goals of the College Campaign is to empower young people — the leaders, shapers, and messengers of the future. Meredith College was one of 550 schools participating in the V-Day 2002 College Campaign.

V-Day was born in 1998 as an outgrowth of Eve Ensler's Obie-Award winning play, "The Vagina Monologues." Hundreds of women told her their stories of rape, incest, domestic battery, and genital mutilation. It was clear that something needed to be done to stop the violence. A group of women joined Eve and founded V-Day . . . a catalyst, a movement, a performance.

V-Day's mission is simple. It demands that the violence must end. It proclaims Valentine's Day as V-Day until the violence stops. When all women live in safety, no longer fearing violence or the threat of violence, then V-Day will be known as Victory Over Violence Day.

freshman Fire and Water Dinner

Each year freshmen gather to celebrate the near completion of their first year in college at the spring Freshmen Fire & Water Dinner. The dinner offers a chance for first year students to gather together as a class and share their experiences from the last year. Memories are written on pieces of paper. Good memories are placed in the fountain to metaphorically float forever, while the bad memories from the year are allowed to burn and disappear forever. This dinner symbolizes a graduation from first year to second.

Mother & Daughter Tea

April 14, 2002

Each year sophomores gather together to honor their mothers at the Mother/Daughter Tea. Many mothers travel long distances to spend time with their daughters and share with them a surprise letter from the heart. A slide show after the letters are read allows both mother and daughter to cherish the memories they have shared together. It is a day to relive old memories and create new ones that will be appreciated for years to come.

When you're a child
she walks before you,
to set an example.

When you're a teenager she walks
behind you, to be there should you need her.

When you're an adult
she walks beside you,
so that as two friends
you can enjoy life together.

Sooner or later we all quote our mothers.

The Saturday of Commencement Week marks a time when sophomores honor their big sis' and seniors highlight their college years. The Little Sisters spend the morning constructing two foot daisy chains to be used for the afternoon's Class Day exercises in the amphitheater. The sophomores hold two daisy chains and sing as their sister class marches through the chains. Class historians recall key events of the graduating class' four years at Meredith. The sophomore and graduated sister classes sing traditional songs to the seniors. The members of the odd year classes wear black gloves on their left hands and give their Little Sisters new coins or wish bone replicas for luck. The even classes give their Little Sisters bags of sticks and stones "to protect them from the Odd Spirit's bones."

The Seven Truths About Successful Women

"I believe our strengths as women can be summed up in seven words. We possess resiliency and a nurturing side. We are the caretakers of the world. We possess intuition, creativity, passion and sensitivity and when all those are in balance, we are capable of possessing a high and healthy self-value. Those are the seven truths."

Your goals are ever closer as a career begins to unfold. We hope you'll be able to realize your hopes and dreams. Just remember that all things take time to accomplish, and that patience is a virtue. You should always have honest and moral values in case you're ever put to the test they will hold up. To thine oneself true and that should also be a behavior towards others as well. Be an upright and model citizen, even though sometimes it may seem boring or unnecessary. Whatever you accomplish within these values will bring JOY unto your Soul and to Others.

WANDA CLARK STEPP

Years of mirth and days of laughter,
Years of "happy ever after,"
Seasons came and seasons went
And days of youth were quickly spent.

Through teenage years and times of trial,
Through times of doubt and of denial,
These times we loved you more
Than you could have ever known before.

For friends you've made the friends you've had,
Special memories you have of dad,
People who've come and those who've passed,
These memories will always last.

As time we left, those who we knew,
Changes in both me and you,
Throughout the years we've watched you grow
And seeds of life you'd quietly sow.

For some times we didn't get along,
The lyrics written in your life's song,
Hold them right there in our heart
For we'll be together when we're apart.

For we've searched for all the words to say
For how much we've loved you every day,
For how proud we are of all you've done,
For how wonderful a woman you have become.

For time grows short before choosing your route,
There's so much left to talk about,
For we know we love you, come what may,
And that's forever, not just today.

Love,
Mom, Arron, and Benton

ALYSON,

We have watched you grow and develop through the years into a lovely, confident young woman. As we look back, the years have flown by, especially the last four while you have been at Meredith. We are grateful that your college experience has been such a positive one. Academically, you have done very well, and we are extremely proud of your hard work and accomplishments. In addition, you have developed some close and wonderful friendships, which you can maintain through years to come.

You have a lot of potential and talent, and twice as much determination and savvy. As we have talked about, God has a special plan just for you. So, as you look toward the future and seek direction, remember never to settle for less than His best for you.

Our Love and Congratulations!
Mom, Dad, and Brent

CONGRATULATIONS CARA!

We are so proud of our Meredith Angel!

LINDY,

Graduation is here bringing a completion to another goal you set. And while this part of your life brings a certain sadness, it provides anticipation for other endeavors. Awaiting you is the working world, living on your own, establishing yourself as an integral part of your community and achieving success. The world lies before you.

You have made us proud at each step of the way. Learning to function on your own, accepting responsibility as an RA, playing volleyball, taking time for summer school, giving your time and energy in the Czech Republic and many personal battles won along the way.

Congratulations to our precious daughter, a beloved sister, a priceless treasure.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Jennifer

EMILY,

We've watched you with joy as the years have gone by. We're so proud of you and your accomplishments and want you to know how much we cherish you. We wish you the best of everything. Make a difference and leave inspiring footprints on your teaching path.

Love,
Mom and Dad

this is just to let you know how incredibly proud we are of you. You are now an adult and your college years have gone by in a flash. You have come a long way since the little girl that walked the beach at Cape Lookout. I hope that you can always reflect on the good times that we had together and remember a father and mother who loved you very much. You are intelligent and with God in your heart and wisdom by your side, you will always be successful. This school has given you a wonderful foundation that will point you in the direction of success. You have worked hard these last four years, and you will find that the future will pay you back. The road ahead may not always be easy, but with your work ethic and determination you will be able to handle life's hurdles. Our goal has always been for you to be successful and thrive in happiness. Remember, no matter what happens, you always have a home and two parents that love you...
